Description

Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences is one of the largest institutions of Higher Education in the Netherlands. It has over 100 partner institutions and welcomes around 2000 exchange students every year. It provides a comprehensive induction programme for incoming students, jointly organised with the local Erasmus Student Network. It has strong links with employers and industry and is EPAS accredited.

Surrounding Area

Amsterdam is the capital of the Netherlands. It became one of the most important ports in the world in the 17th century and during this time its many canals were built. It is the cultural hotspot of the country, with many tourist attractions including historic canals, many museums, Anne Frank House and cultural events and festivals such as King's Day, Pride and the festival of performing arts.

Accommodation

Amsterdam UAS has a central student housing department contactable via studenthousing@hva.nl. Experienced student housing staff assist students with their housing enquiries. Accommodation in Amsterdam typically costs €400-500 per month.

How to apply

When successfully selected by UWE and nominated to AUAS you will need to send the following documents in your online application:
